Rug 30009

Hand knotted in Nepal, 100 knots / square inch. High-quality hemp, cactus, nettle and bamboo fibers combine in the same stringent fashion used by nature. The finely spun fibers yield increased knots per square inch. The result is a unique and stunningly fine look with magnificent coloring. The versatility of bamboo as a material for hand-knotted carpets is truly fascinating. As a vegetable fiber, bamboo has always displayed a convincing robustness and resistance. Its tremendous silky gloss finish creates incredible light effects, particularly on large surfaces.
